PROXY STATEMENT

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of J & J Snack Foods Corp. ("J & J") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Tuesday, February 7, 2006 at 10:00 A.M., E.S.T., at The Cherry Hill Hilton, Route 70 and Cuthbert Road, Cherry Hill, New Jersey 08034 and at any postponement or adjournment thereof. The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy will first be sent or given to shareholders is December 20, 2005. Sending a signed proxy will not affect the shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person since the proxy is revocable. The grant of a later proxy revokes this proxy. The presence at the meeting of a shareholder who has given a proxy does not revoke the proxy unless the shareholder files written notice of the revocation with the secretary of the meeting prior to the voting of proxy or votes the shares subject to the proxy by written ballot.

The expense of the proxy solicitation will be borne by J & J. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited in person or by telephone, telegraph, E-mail or teletype by directors, officers or employees of J & J without additional compensation. J & J is required to pay the reasonable expenses incurred by record holders of the common stock, no par value per share, of J & J (the "Common Stock") who are brokers, dealers, banks or voting trustees, or other nominees, for mailing proxy material and annual shareholder reports to any beneficial owners of Common Stock they hold of record, upon request of such record holders.

A form of proxy is enclosed. If properly executed and received in time for voting, and not revoked, the enclosed proxy will be voted as indicated in accordance with the instructions thereon. If no directions to the contrary are indicated, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote all shares of Common Stock for the election of the nominees for director.

The enclosed proxy confers discretionary authority to vote with respect to any and all of the following matters that may come before the meeting: (i) matters which J & J does not know about a reasonable time before the proxy solicitation, and are presented at the meeting; (ii) approval of the minutes of a prior meeting of shareholders, if such approval does not amount to ratification of the action taken at the meeting; (iii) the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve; and (iv) matters incident to the conduct of the meeting. In connection with such matters, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

J & J had 9,147,351 shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on December 10, 2005 the record date. The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast on a particular matter constitutes a quorum for the purpose of considering such matter. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter which may be brought before the Meeting. The election of directors will be determined by a plurality vote and the nominee receiving the most “for” votes will be elected. Approval of any other proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares cast on the proposal. An abstention, withholding of authority to vote for or broker non-vote, therefore, will not have the same legal effect as an “against” vote and will not be counted in determining whether the proposal has received the required shareholder vote. Shareholders do not have approval or dissenter rights with respect to election of directors.

PROPOSAL 1

If the nominee becomes unable or for good cause will not serve, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote in accordance with their best judgment for the election of such substitute nominee as shall be designated by the Board of Directors. Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for determining the compensation to be paid and the benefits to be provided to the Company's Executive Officers.

The Company's compensation is comprised of base salary, bonus, long term incentive compensation in the form of stock options, and various benefits generally available to all full-time employees of the Company, including participation in group medical and life insurance plans and the 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan.

Base Salary

The base salary level for the Company's Chief Executive Officer is competitively set relative to companies in the food industry that are similar to the Company. In obtaining this information, the Company informally reviews newspaper and trade journal reports and information gathered from discussion with others in the industry. No formal survey is undertaken. Base salary for other Executive Offices was historically set by the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee reviewed these salaries and approved increases averaging 3.8 percent.

Cash Bonuses

Cash bonuses are designed to motivate Executive Officers to achieve near-term financial objectives consistent with the Company's overall business strategies. The bonus for Mr. Shreiber was determined pursuant to the formulae approved by the shareholders at the 2004 annual meeting. This bonus is equal to 2.5 percent of the Company's Net Earnings. For the other Executive Officers, bonuses are in some cases linked primarily to achieving increases from the prior year's sales and/or earnings. In other cases, bonuses reflect a more subjective view of an individual's performance.

Stock Options

The Company uses the Stock Option Plan as its long-term incentive plan for executive officers and key employees. The objectives of this Plan are to align the long term interests of executive officers and shareholders by creating a direct link between executive compensation and shareholder return and to enable executives to develop and maintain a significant long term equity interest in the Company. Options given to the Chief Executive Officer had been fixed according to the Company's Stock Option Plan. Mr. Shreiber elected not to take the 10,000 options that he was entitled to receive under the Stock Option Plan. Options given to other executive officers are recommended by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Compensation Committee. No stock options were issued to the other executive officers during fiscal 2005.

Tax Deductibility under Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the U.S. Internal Code of 1986 limits deductibility of compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and to each of the other four highest-paid executive officers unless this compensation qualifies as "performance-based". Based on the applicable tax regulations, any taxable compensation derived from the exercise of stock options by senior executives under the Company's Stock Option Plans should qualify as performance-based. The bonus to Mr. Shreiber should also qualify as performance-based. The Company did not pay any compensation for fiscal 2005 that will not be deductible due to Section 162(m). However, the Committee is not precluded from doing so in the future should it determine that such payments or awards are necessary to retain and motivate key executives.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements for fiscal year 2005. The Committee discussed with the Company's independent accountants, Grant Thornton, the matters required to be discussed by the Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards 61, Communication with Audit Committees (as modified or supplemented). In addition, the Audit Committee received the written disclosures and the letter from Grant Thornton required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, discussed with Grant Thornton its independence from the Company, and considered whether the providing of non-audit services to the Company by Grant Thornton is compatible with maintaining Grant Thornton's independence.

Based on these reviews and discussions and in reliance thereon, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the Company be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 24, 2005.
